

Market Research Foundation Course

(Market Research Society of Malaysia in collaboration with MRS UK) 2016

The Market Research Society of Malaysia (MRSM) is proud to announce the 2016 wave of MRSM Marketing and Social Research Foundations course, in Kuala Lumpur.

The course is designed for those young research professionals who are seeking excellence in research and also global employability and have less than two years of experience in the industry (client or agency side).

COURSE STRUCTURE

The course is a single unit qualification, comprising modules and an integrated assignment, as well as a final examination (conducted by the MRS UK).

Upon successfully passing the examination and assignment, successful participants will be issued the Advanced Certificate in Market and Social Research.

During the course participants would need to :

- Attend the classroom instruction sessions and participate in the practical exercises.
- Complete an integrated assignment, requiring participants to prepare a brief and proposal for a research project. The assignment would require participants to integrate their knowledge across all course modules.
- Attend tutorial sessions to prepare for the MRS UK exam
- Successfully pass the written examination conducted in the last week of January 2017 by the MRS UK.

COURSE CONDUCTOR

John Smurthwaite ex-TNS, supported by the MRSM Training & Development team will be responsible for organizing and conducting the course.

VENUE
